

Christian Vegh, 17 yr. old Singer/Songwriter/Guitarist of Red Legacy will be leading a guitar clinic at Long & McQuade in Windsor, June 18th, 5-6:30 pm. Christian has performed at BB Kings in Nashville, Headlined "Passport to the World" for a crowd of 4000 and at the International Children's Games with Susan McNeil in front of 10,000. www.christianvegh.com or www.red-legacy.com

Christian was High School Regional Jazz Musician of the Year and he is Spokesperson/Role-Model for "Reach Out and Engage" an American Anti-Addictions Program. Featured on CBC "The Bridge" he was with the youngest band to win Long and McQuade's "Battle of the Band" and "Battle of the Bands for Cancer". Red Legacy was a CBC "Searchlight" Regional Finalist and was showcased at the "Rock of Dimes". This Blues/Rock trio headlined "Me to We" as they raised money for a school in Kenya. Christian was also a featured speaker at this event on "Youth Engagement and Giving Back to your Community".

Red Legacy has recently released an EP that is playing on Canadian and American Radio and is being used in advertising and television. Christian and Red Legacy with McKenzie Burrows on drums have received a lot of attention from musicians such as Joe Bonamassa, Alex Lifeson and Dick Wagner. Don't miss this free event for musicians of all ages! Seating is limited and advance registration is recommended. Contact - Ken Koekstat (519) 252-3442

