Christian Vegh...

Teenage Sensation Rocks the Nation

The hottest young guitar player in the nation, makes his home in LaSalle. Why wouldn't he want to reside in LaSalle, it's the birthplace of iconic Canadian rockers Jeff Burrows, Jeff

Martin and Stuart Chatwood of The Tea Party? A footnote to this interesting young life is that we was technically born in a Detroit hospital. The Motor City ironically is a cradle of rock and popular music. Growing up in Tecumseh, an "ear" shot from the great bands of the Corn Fest, one of Christian's early non-playing, after-school jobs was at Blackburn Radio, sharing the hallways with "rock jocks" including Jeff Burrows.

Christian Vegh is a mere 19 years old, already accomplished as a guitarist, composer and performer and his stage just gets larger with each passing season. He was granted scholarship into the Berklee College of Music in Boston and he has performed at every major festival in the area multiple times. Lately, he wow'ing audiences in Toronto. Recently, he flew to California to record with established rockers and he continues to work on exciting new projects on his own, as well as with many of the masters in the music industry.

You can check out a wonderful sampling of Christian's work on-line including his own YouTube site.
